Dear Peter;

Thank you so much for taking the time to talk with me, lend support and love, and to also talk with the attorney I have engaged.

This battle has been frustrating and exhausting. The legal system is certainly full of injustice at the present time! (Prayers and positive thinking have gotten us this far!)

Let's hope the outcome of these procedures will protect this little child. He is so dear, so innocent and trusting, so deserving of a secure and happy childhood.

Our children are the legacy of humanity.

You are doing such a fine thing by leading people with your convictions that nurturing and loving is alright – and indeed mandatory for raising well-adjusted and healthy human beings.

I look forward to meeting you.

My deepest thanks for the time you shared with me.

We wish you peace, warmth and love.

Sincerely yours.
