

Subject: Fwd:Re: Thanks (fwd)

Date: Tue, 03 Sep 2002 15:18:18 -0400 (EDT)

From:

To:

-----
Peter!-

Thanks so much for writing. I've just begun a new school year at _____ and at _____ (the school at which I teach). I've had some time to reflect on the Learning and Development class. For me, it was a great class to start out with and I felt privileged to have you as a teacher. The class has also left me with some ideas that I just can't get out of my head! In a recent staff meeting devoted to establishing our discipline (for lack of a better word) policy, I kept responding to ideas with the question "Is this a humane solution?" There are many other ideas at the basis of how teachers, administrators, and students interact that I took from the Learning and Development class. I even got my whole staff to attend a positive discipline seminar. I'm very interested in keeping our conversations going. I feel that I have a lot to learn from you and that I might be soon be e-mailing you for advice in getting my students' parents more involved. What will you be doing this fall?