

12/22/92

Dear Peter,

First of all, I'd just like to express my deepest thanks for taking the time to converse with me. You don't know how much it means to me when somebody, such as yourself, opens up in such a way as you did.

Few people, if any, have ever shared their deepest fears, worries, concerns, etc. and I can't even begin to tell you how much it means to me. (I really can't).

You are truly one of my dearest, smartest, and most intelligent friends.

I could continue $\frac{1}{2}$ but time will not allow. I am heading home this morning, but I expect to return sometime after Christmas (the 27th ?) to pack up and move out. As much as I'm sure I'll probably regret it, the time has come for me to live with people (students) my own age. I wish you a very Merry Christmas dear friend. — Send my regards to the family (as always ☺), and the dog, too!

With love,